PEKELILING PENTADBIRAN BIL. 10/2017

GARIS PANDUAN PENERIMAAN DAN PEMBERIAN HADIAH STAF UNIVERSITI TEKNOLOGI MALAYSIA

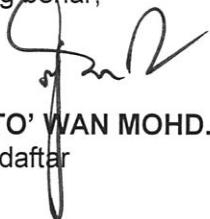

Sukacita dimaklumkan bahawa Mesyuarat Jawatankuasa Pengurusan Universiti Bil. 6/2017 yang diadakan pada 28 Mac 2017 telah meluluskan Garis Panduan Penerimaan dan Pemberian Hadiah Staf Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.

2. Amalan memberi dan menerima hadiah telah menjadi budaya dalam Universiti, sehingga menyebabkan amalan ini sukar dipantau oleh pihak atasaran. Walaupun bertujuan bagi menzahirkan rasa terima kasih, persahabatan dan persaudaraan, namun maksud sebenar amalan ini amat sukar diterjemahkan. Jika berkaitan dengan tugas rasmi harian, perkara ini berkemungkinan menjurus ke arah penyalahgunaan kuasa yang boleh diterjemahkan sebagai rasuah dan secara langsung menjelaskan integriti dan imej Universiti.
3. Sehubungan dengan itu, dalam usaha meningkatkan integriti, satu garis panduan mengenai pemberian dan penerimaan hadiah diwujudkan agar pelaksanaan tugas rasmi harian dijalankan dengan telus dalam kalangan staf Universiti Teknologi Malaysia. Garis Panduan Penerimaan dan Pemberian Hadiah Staf Universiti Teknologi Malaysia beserta borang-borang berkaitan adalah seperti di lampiran.
4. Sehubungan itu, semua staf diminta mengambil maklum mengenai pelaksanaan Garis Panduan Penerimaan dan Pemberian Hadiah Staf Universiti Teknologi Malaysia selaras dengan pematuhan Peraturan 7, Peraturan-Peraturan Tatatertib Badan-Badan Berkanun, Akta Badan-Badan Berkanun (Tatatertib dan Surcaj) 2000.

5. Sebarang kemusykilan, rujukan boleh terus dibuat kepada Pejabat Penasihat Undang-Undang UTM di talian 07-5530391.

ADMINISTRATIVE CIRCULAR NO. 10/2017

GIFT ACCEPTANCE AND BEQUEATHING GUIDELINE FOR STAFF OF UNIVERSITI TEKNOLOGI MALAYSIA

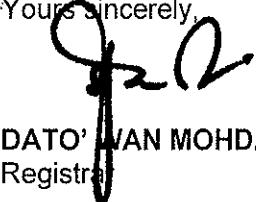

Please be informed that the University Management Committee Meeting No. 6/2017 held on 28 March 2017 has endorsed the Gift Acceptance and Bequeathing Guideline for Staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.

2. The practice of giving and receiving of gifts has become a culture at the University, making the practice difficult to be monitored by UTM higher authorities. Although intended to express gratitude, friendship and kinship, the real intent of this practice is very difficult to discern. If the gift is related to routine official duties, the practice would likely lead to abuse of power that can be interpreted as bribery and could directly affect the integrity and image of the University.
3. Accordingly, in order to enhance integrity, a set of guidelines on the acceptance and bequeathing of gifts has been developed in ensuring that the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia could carry out their official duties in a transparent manner. The Gift Acceptance and Bequeathing Guideline for Staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, together with the relevant forms are attached.
4. Thus, all staff members are to take note of the Gift Acceptance and Bequeathing Guideline for Staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, in compliance with Rule 7, Disciplinary Regulations of Statutory Bodies, Statutory Bodies (Discipline and Surcharge) Act 2000.

5. For any enquiries, please refer directly to the UTM Legal Advisor Office at 07-5530391.

GIFT ACCEPTANCE AND BEQUEATHING GUIDELINE FOR STAFF OF UNIVERSITI TEKNOLOGI MALAYSIA

1. Background

- 1.1 The practice of giving and receiving of gifts has become a culture at the University, making the practice difficult to be monitored by UTM higher authorities. Although intended to express gratitude, friendship and kinship, the real intent of this practice is very difficult to discern. If the gift is related to routine official duties, the practice would likely lead to abuse of power that can be interpreted as bribery and could directly affect the integrity and image of the University.
- 1.2 In an effort to enhance integrity, a set of guidelines on accepting and bequeathing of gifts has been developed in ensuring that the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia could carry out their official duties in a transparent manner.

2. Guideline Statement

- 2.1 Administrative Circular No. 3 of 1998, Service Circular No. 5 of 2008, and Statutory Bodies (Discipline and Surcharge) Act 2000 have made provisions for the control of accepting and bequeathing of gifts among the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.
- 2.2 In addition, the need to establish this guideline has been officially endorsed at the UTM Integrity and Governance Committee (JITU) dated February 8, 2017, which was chaired by Prof. Datuk Ir. Dr. Wahid bin Omar, Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.

3. Aim

- 3.1 Used as a term of reference and guidelines for accepting and bequeathing of gifts among the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia and parties dealing with staff members of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.
- 3.2 Enhance integrity among the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia and ultimately elevating the image of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.

4.6 Head of Department

The Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, including any officers authorized in writing by the Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia to act on his behalf.

5. SCOPE

5.1 This guideline applies to all staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia throughout his/her tenure at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, including any parties dealing with the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, and also applies to students, throughout their studies at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia.

6. PROHIBITION FROM ACCEPTING AND BEQUEATHING OF GIFTS

6.1 Staff members of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia are prohibited from receiving and bequeathing of gifts, related to the implementation of their official duties and / or when the nature, amount or value of the gift is not commensurate with the purpose of bequeathing the gift. Rules and regulations prohibiting the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia from receiving or bequeathing gifts fall under Rule 7 (1), Part II of the Code of Conduct, under the Statutory Bodies (Discipline and Surcharge) Act 2000, Act 605 as follows:

Rule 7(1), Part II, Code of Conduct, Statutory Bodies (Discipline and Surcharge) Act 2000:

"An officer can neither receive nor give, and shall not allow his or her spouse or any other person to accept or give any gifts on his or her behalf, whether in tangible form or otherwise, from or to any individual, association, body or groups of people, if the acceptance or bequeathing of the gifts is in any way connected, either directly or indirectly, with the officer's official duties."

7. GIFTS AUTHORIZED TO BE ACCEPTED BY UTM STAFF

- 7.1 In certain situations, staff members of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia may receive gifts subject to the approval of the Head of Department. This is provided for under Rule 7(4) Part II of the Code of Conduct, Statutory Bodies (Discipline and Surcharge) Act 2000

Rule 7(4) Part II, Code of Conduct, Statutory Bodies (Discipline and Surcharge) Act 2000.

If –

- (a) an officer is in doubt whether the nature, amount or value of the gift received by him/her is commensurate with the intent of giving the gift; or
- (b) circumstances make it difficult for an officer to refuse a gift or token of value, the receipt of which is prohibited by this regulation, the gift may be formally accepted, but the officer shall, as soon as practicable, submit a written report to the Head of Department containing a full description and estimated value of the gift and the circumstances in which it was received.

8. NATURE, AMOUNT OR VALUE OF GIFTS COMMENSURATING WITH THE INTENT

- 8.1 Acceptance of gifts should take into consideration the nature, amount or value of gifts received in order not to arouse any suspicion to himself/herself or others.
- 8.2 In circumstances where acceptance of the gift is not related to services provided by the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia, the gift's nature, amount or value commensurate with the intent of the gift, shall be based on the gift's current value, occasion and intent of acceptance.

8.3 Acceptance of gifts by staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia not related to his or her duties and responsibilities, whether the gifts commensurate with their intent, is based on the following:

- (a) Acceptance of the gift does not commensurate with the intent of the gift if the current value of the gift (in monetary form) exceeds $\frac{1}{4}$ or more of the officer's monthly emolument, or exceeds RM500.00 whichever is lower. In this case, acceptance of the gift should be reported to Head of the Department for approval.
- (b) Acceptance of the gift commensurate with the intent of the gift and does not require any reports to be submitted to Head of the Department for approval, if the value of gift received is less than a $\frac{1}{4}$ of the officer's emolument, or less than RM500.00, whichever is lower. In addition, acceptance of the gift commensurate with the intent of the gift, even if its value exceeds RM500.00, if the gift is accepted in the following circumstances:
 - i. acceptance of gifts from colleagues due to retirement, redeployment, engagement and wedding of staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia;
 - ii. acceptance of gifts from his or her spouse, children - including sons- or daughters in-law or legally adopted children, mother/father, including parents-in-law and siblings of either spouses;

- iii. acceptance of gifts from relatives and friends for birthdays, engagement and marriage of the officer or the officer's children, or any events related to custom and religion; or
 - iv. acceptance of perishable and non-durable gifts such as fruits, cakes and cookies, soft drinks, etc.
- 8.4 However, if the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia is still in doubt and believe that the acceptance of the gift may cause problems with regard to the officer's duties and obligations, or may raise suspicion to himself/herself or others, the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia may report the acceptance of the gift to the Head of Department.

9. ACCEPTANCE OF DIFFICULT TO DECLINE GIFTS

- 9.1 While carrying out a task or responsibility, at times it is difficult for the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia to refuse a gift because refusing the gift would embarrass the giver/benefactor or would put the officer in a quandary. The following are some typical examples:
- (a) while serving in seminars, symposiums, courses or any official ceremonies at the state or international level, the organizers did not inform the officer in advance of gifts procured for the officer; or
 - (b) while performing official duties in selected districts or villages where the community or village/district heads offer gifts in the form of fruits, vegetables, handicrafts, etc.
- 9.2 In circumstances where it is difficult to refuse a gift that is related to official duties, the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia is allowed to receive the gift, but upon returning to the office, the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia shall report to the Head of Department for approval.

- 9.3 Nevertheless, for ease of administration, the staff of Universiti Teknologi Malaysia is required only to report to the Head of Department using the form in Appendix B, which does not require approval of the Head of Department, provided the difficult to decline gift;
- (a) has a value of less than RM100.00;
 - (b) is in the form of a badge, plaque or pennant, or any handicraft produced by the giver/benefactor himself/herself, or any forms of printed materials related to the giver/benefactor used for promotional purposes
